Minnesota Coalition for the Homeless Wins Prestigious Nonprofit Mission Award in Advocacy

St. Paul - The Minnesota Coalition for the Homeless won the prestigious Nonprofit Mission Award in Advocacy, presented by the Minnesota Council of Nonprofits (MCN) and MAP for Nonprofits.

With 2,000 member organizations, MCN is the largest association of nonprofits in the United States. The Nonprofit Mission Awards, selected by Minnesota's nonprofit community, is among the highest honors in the sector.

“The Minnesota Coalition for the Homeless is humbled to be recognized for our nonprofit advocacy,” said Liz Kuoppala, Executive Director of the Minnesota Coalition for the Homeless. “As a coalition of direct service providers, we are passionate about using our collective voice for housing solutions at the State Capitol.”

The Nonprofit Mission Awards will be presented at MCN's 2013 Annual Conference on October 25 in Duluth, MN.
